H. P. Wear Dies Friday; Was Pioneer Druggist

Entire County Joins Mourning of Widely Known Citizen

Death came Friday morning, March 22, at 2:15 o'clock to one of the most distinguished and highest regarded citizens of Murray, H. P. Wear, 79, pioneer druggist, devout churchman, indulgent father, loving husband, good neighbor and friend to his fellow man, passed away following an illness of several weeks at his home on North Fifth Street with members of his family present. Mr. Wear suffered from an organic ailment.

Though his death was not unexpected, Mr. Wear's passing was none the less a deep shock to his family and many friends. There was never a kinder soul than Mr. Wear. He never had other than a pleasant word for anyone. He was gracious and understanding to all.

Mr. Wear was the son of A. H. and Mrs. Sallie Wear, deceased, and was born in Murray on the thirteenth day of January, 1861. As a boy he farmed and secured an education from the Murray Male and Female Institute.

On August 2, 1895, he was married to Miss Numa Oury, a fine Christian character, who survives to mourn his death together with two daughters and a grandson, Mrs. S. R. Pearson, Jacksonville, Fla., Mrs. Paul Willis, Atlanta, Ga., and Hugh Stevens Pearson, Jacksonville, Fla. Also surviving him are one sister, Miss Mattie Wear, Murray, and a brother, E. W. Wear, Wickliffe, Ky., and numerous other near relatives.

For more than 54 years, Mr. Wear was owner of the Wear Drug Store which had been owned and conducted by members of the Wear family for approximately 90 years previous to Mr. Wear's retirement in May, 1936. The drug business was founded by his father, A. H. Wear, in 1844, and was succeeded by the former Mr. Wear in 1882.

The church has always been close to Mr. Wear's heart, and has been one of the most prominent pillars of the First Christian Church of Murray for many, many years. He has served his church in various capacities open to the layman. He has been clerk of his church for the last 30 years. He has been faithful at his church duties and his daily life was a constant emulation of the teachings of his Master.

Mr. Wear was never lacking in his loyalty and service to his community, serving at various times on the school board and as a member of other civic groups where he rendered honest and efficient service. He was an elder of the First Christian Church at the time of his death.

An overflowing crowd attended the funeral services which were conducted from the First Christian Church Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

The Rev. E. B. Moley, former pastor of Mr. Wear and now of Corpus Christi, Tex., assisted by Rev. J. Mack Jenkins, past president of the church, officiated at the funeral. The service was a beautiful and touching one, and the Rev. Mr. Wear was a constant reminder of the life and character of this noble man.

Interment was in the City Cemetery. Among the out-of-town attendants at the funeral and burial services were Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Pearson and little son, Hugh Stevens of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Willis of Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wear, Mr. Clyde Filbeck, Wickliffe; Mrs. Ada Wear, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hinkle, LaCenter; John Wear, Sturgis; Daniel Wear, Mrs. W. A. Merritt, Willie Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Moss, Nashville; Tom Wear, Paducah; Mrs. F. F. Arver, Mrs. J. D. Peterson, Benton; Mrs. Geo. Brandon and son, Ross, Dover.

Kroger Company To Retain Store
at Present Site

The Kroger Grocery and Baking Company will not move its store from the present location to occupy the Elmus Beale building at Third and Main streets as indicated last week, but will operate two stores in Murray.

Jimmy Jones, president manager of the Kroger establishment will continue as manager of the store located on the West Side of the Court Square.

The new store will be opened immediately upon completion of remodeling and decorating, which is now in progress.

Many Deeply Mourn His Death

Lawrence Infant Buried Sunday

John David Lawrence, infant son of Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Lawrence of Lynn Grove, was buried Sunday afternoon, March 24, in Sinking Springs cemetery. Rev. Sam P. Martin conducted the short funeral service at the home at 1:30 o'clock.

Death came to the six-day-old baby Sunday morning at 7 o'clock. Besides the parents a brother and sister, Donald and Eulalia Lawrence, survive.

Postal Clerks Sponsor Movie

"Men and Mail," the free movie sponsored by the postal employees of Murray and Murray High School will be shown at Murray High School auditorium on Tuesday evening, April 2, at 7:30 o'clock. The film has been secured through the efforts of L. C. Hendon, local clerk who is president of the Kentucky Federation of Post Office Clerks, and will prove highly entertaining and instructive. A short subject will be shown in addition to the feature picture.

COMMERCE GROUP ELECTS DIRECTORS

Retiring Officials Renamed Tuesday
For Two Year Period

The Murray Chamber of Commerce met in the Court House Tuesday evening, March 26, for election of directors. Luther Robertson, Ernest Jones, Wells Overbey and P. W. Ordway, the retiring directors, were re-elected for a period of two years.

A meeting of the Board of Directors will be held today at 5 o'clock for the purpose of electing officers for the year of 1940.

The meeting was presided over by President Luther Robertson who gave a resume of the work of the group during the past year.

E. M. "Bert" Sexton Sells Interest in Local Hardware Company

E. M. "Bert" Sexton, for 30 years a member of the firm of Sexton Brothers Hardware Co., has sold his interest in the company to H. Douglas and Misses Frances and Ruth Sexton. The style of the new firm will be Sexton-Douglas Hardware Company.

Miss Frances Sexton has been connected with the hardware firm for some four years, while Mr. Douglas has been in the employ of the Sextons for approximately 12 years. Mr. Douglas is a nephew of J. D. Sexton.

Miss Ruth Sexton will not be actively connected with the store but will continue to serve as head of the Home Economics Department at Murray State College. Charles Sexton will continue as salesman for the new firm.

Mr. E. M. Sexton has not yet announced his future plans.

MEMPHIS GROUP TO VISIT APRIL 12

Know Your Neighbor Tour by Chamber of Commerce
Includes Murray

The Memphis Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring a two-day "Know Your Neighbor Tour" of west Tennessee and Kentucky have announced through Marshall J. Smith, director of trade relations, that their special train will stop at Murray for a short time on Monday, April 12th. The time set for the arrival, although not officially confirmed, is 10:05 a. m.

On a former trip of this nature some 18 months ago, the Tennessee delegates, welcomed by representatives of civic groups here and the college band played for their entertainment.

Plans are on foot to again give these neighbors a taste of Murray's special brand of Southern hospitality.

New Soil Conservation Bill Has Broad Features

Farmers Show Keen Interest in the New Law

Editor's Note: In compliance with requests from numerous farmers for information on the Kentucky Soil Conservation Bill recently enacted by the 1940 Legislature, we are submitting in brief an explanation of this bill.

Digest of the Kentucky Soil Conservation Districts Act and Basic Provisions

1. Siting of stream channels, reservoirs, ditches, and harbors.
2. Piling up of soil on lower slopes, and ruin of bottom lands by over-wash.
3. Loss of soil fertility and declining yields.
4. Destruction of food and cover for wildlife, and destruction of fish life.
5. Intensifying of droughts and floods, and impoverishment of soil.
6. Damages to highways, railroads, buildings, navigation, hydro-electric power.

Appropriate corrective measures suggested in the Act are:

1. Engineering operations such as the construction of terraces, check dams, check-dikes, dikes, ponds, ditches, and the like.
2. Utilizing contour strip cropping, contour cultivating, and contour furrowing.
3. Seeding and planting of wayside, abandoned, and eroding land to water-conserving and erosion-preventing plants, trees, and grasses.
4. Forestation, suitable crop rotation, retardation of run-off, and soil stabilization with trees, grasses, etc.

When the charter is issued the district is organized. The landowners then elect three more supervisors, who, with the two appointed supervisors, serve as the governing board.

7. Districts are empowered to: (See "New Soil", Page 8)

SEAL SALE TO CONTINUE

Drive to Aid Crippled Children to Close April 6

The Seal sale for the benefit of crippled children of Kentucky, which was to have closed Easter Sunday, will be continued through April 6th, it was announced by T. O. Turner, Calloway county chairman.

Reports from the school children of the county have done an excellent job in selling the many seals already sold," said Mr. Turner. "The quota has not been reached and we are extending the time in order that more people may have an opportunity to aid in this great humanitarian cause."

Figures were not available to show the exact amount of money derived from the sale of seals, which started on Wednesday, March 28th, and continued throughout the week, nor has the committee yet announced the amount of funds gained, through the sale of Easter lilies, which was sponsored by the Scouts of Troop 45.

Plans are on foot to again give these neighbors a taste of Murray's special brand of Southern hospitality.

Victor Henson Dies in Detroit

Burial of Victor Henson, 50, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Henson of Murray, who died at his home in Detroit, Sunday night, will take place in the Elmwood cemetery this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Henson had been a resident of Detroit for many years and leaves surviving him his wife, one son, his parents, and ten brothers and sisters.

Death came after a short illness of flu. The body will be brought to Paducah to the home of his sister, Mrs. Annie Ernestberger, where it will rest until time for the services at Almo.

CLOSING MEETING OF FARM SERIES HELD ON TUESDAY

Group Attending Anxious For Similar Class
Next Year

The series of evening classes for farmers which has been conducted by Prof. W. H. Brooks, agriculture teacher at the Training School, closed the meeting held Thursday evening, March 22.

Throughout the series of 10 meetings, 17 farmers have availed themselves of the opportunity to hear timely discussions of various phases of farming which will be beneficial in this section. The average attendance for the meetings was 14.

Persons not attending as many as three meetings were not considered as enrolled. Seventeen attended more than five of the meetings.

Interest was manifest by the attending group in a similar series of classes to be conducted next year.

SPORTSMEN MEET TO BE HELD IN MAY

Five Hundred Delegates Plan to Attend 2-Day Convention in Somerset

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 27.—Five hundred delegates are expected to attend the annual convention of the League of Kentucky Sportsmen, which will be held in Somerset on May 13 and 14.

An interesting program is being arranged for the two-day meeting with speakers including H. N. Wheeler, National Forest lecturer; Charles E. Jackson, U. S. Commissioner of the Bureau of Fisheries; and "Ozark" Ripley, internationally known outdoor author, fisherman, hunter, department store sportsman, and a leader in conservation to address the assemblage.

Outdoor entertainment will be featured at the fair grounds by Bill Adkins, famous expert marksman, trick shot and comedian, and Tony Accetta, former world's and now U. S. professional, and his wife, and by casting champion, Tony won the U. S. Amateur all-around championship for two consecutive years. Today he is recognized as a wizard with either the bait casting or fly rod in accuracy or distance.

The League, which started five years ago with just a handful of sportsmen's clubs as a nucleus, now boasts 102 clubs. Dennie Gooch, Somerset, is president of the organization.

Mr. Gooch stated that he expects sportsmen from every section of the state to attend the convention, which promises to be the most interesting in the history of the League.

The League of Kentucky Sportsmen is cooperating to the fullest extent with the Division of Game and Fish in its program of conserving the wildlife resources of Kentucky and in restocking the fields and streams of the state with game and fish in order to bring to the sportsman the greatest amount of sport possible.

Sledd, Hendon Attend Meeting

Post Master Harry I. Sledd and L. C. Hendon left Wednesday for Louisville to attend the Kentucky Post Masters Convention.

EASTER SNOW IS UNUSUAL

C. B. Fulton Recalls March Snow
70 Odd Years Ago

"A blanket of snow, which is said to be perhaps the deepest of the winter falling at one time, greeted this section on Easter morning for the first 'white Easter' in the memory of residents here."

Various persons visiting the Ledger & Times office remember cold weather and several have reported snow flurries on previous occasions.

C. B. Fulton of Murray states that approximately 70 years ago a deep snow fell on the fourth Sunday in March. Mr. Fulton, who is now 77 years old, recalls that he was a small boy when this happened and does not know the exact year. He states that the snow started falling in the night on Saturday and continued through the entire day Sunday.

He further states that a strong wind blew throughout the storm so that parts of the ground would be exposed and the snow drifted almost waist deep in spots. He vividly remembers this as he helped to feed the stock at his home near Kirksey on these days and waded through some of the deep snow.

Armstrong Now In Marine Corp, Enlisted in 1918

James C. Armstrong, now on three months leave from his marine corps station in Cincinnati, Ohio, who is visiting his father, J. C. Armstrong, of Hazel, Route 2, visited the Ledger & Times office Monday to place his name on the list of Calloway countians who saw service in the World War.

Armstrong volunteered in July, 1918, saw six months service overseas, was discharged in 1919 and is the only one brought to attention who is at present serving in the service of our country.

Among other names of volunteers from this county are Ernest Bailey who enlisted during the first week of war, Virgil R. Lassiter, who served with the Coast Artillery from Rhode Island, Carlos Morton, and James A. Holton.

William S. Murdoch, a resident of this county at present, enlisted from Graves county, but has resided in Calloway ever since his discharge which he received after four months of service.

E. L. Barnett Is Painfully Hurt Saturday Night

E. L. Barnett of Pine Bluff vicinity was painfully injured Saturday night, March 23, when he was attacked by a bear while listening to a fox chase.

Mr. Barnett, who resides on the Joe Baker farm at Pine Bluff, had gone into his yard to listen to the baying of fox hounds which were running near his home when the mad boar knocked him down.

Pulling a muscle in one leg, the enraged animal chewed both his legs severely before he was able to escape. He was brought to Murray where he received medical attention. Fourteen stitches were required to close the wounds.

67 ENTRIES VIE FOR HONORS ON FIRST MULE DAY

Snow and Cold Weather
Are No Obstacles
to Crowd

DAVID TERHUNE, 94, IS OLDEST MAN PRESENT

Braving the extreme cold a record crowd turned out to witness Murray's first big-time Mule Day Fourth Monday. Despite the snowy roads the citizens of Calloway county brought their stock in droves to make the occasion one long to be remembered. Sixty-seven entries competed for the prizes.

David Terhune, 94, father of Mrs. G. C. Ashcraft, was the oldest man present.

A list of the winners of the various prizes offered reveals the fact that only two persons, H. A. Swift of Benton Route 3, and J. H. Robinson & Son of Puryear, Tenn., received a first and second prize. Mr. Swift took a second prize in one class and a first in another, while no one entry Mr. Robinson had no competition.

With the first occasion of this type definitely acclaimed a success by the committee, conditions did fair to its establishing a precedent in Murray which will mean that each Fourth Monday in March will be a red letter day in the history of Calloway county.

Persons who usually come early to insure a good parking space near the business district took advantage of the new parking lot at the corner of Poplar and Fourth, with the late comers taking whatever room was left. Cars were parked many blocks out in every direction from the business district.

Photographers in Murray for the filming of the Lion's Club picture "We're in the Movies" were on the job throughout the day and caught many shots of the crowd and the mules which will be shown when their movie is presented in the college auditorium April 15-16.

Winners of prizes were:

Best Pair of Mules, any age: First, Price, Holmes Paschall, Puryear, Tenn.; Second, price, Elmus Wilson, Murray Rt. 6.

Best Mule Under 2 Years: First, W. C. Nanney, Murray Rt. 1; Second, R. C. Tarry, Murray Rt. 1.

Best Mule, any age: First, J. D. Wilson, Murray Rt. 6; Second, R. L. Kelso, Lynn Grove.

Largest Mule: First, L. F. Wilson, Murray Rt. 1; Second, H. A. Swift, Benton Rt. 3.

Smallest Mule: First, H. A. Swift, Benton Rt. 3.

Best Pair Horses or Mares: First, Willie Jackson, Paducah, Ky.; Second, Thomas Roberts, Murray Rt. 1.

Best Saddle Horse or Mare: First, P. L. Lawrence, Hazel Rt. 2; Second, George Hart, Murray.

Best Stallion: First, L. W. Farmer, Murray Rt. 4.

Best Jack: First, J. H. Robinson & Son, Puryear, Tenn.; Second, J. H. Robinson & Son, Puryear, Tenn.

Best Draft Horse or Mare: First, Willie Jackson, Paducah, Ky.; Second, Thomas Roberts, Murray Rt. 3.

James C. Armstrong, now on three months leave from his marine corps station in Cincinnati, Ohio, who is visiting his father, J. C. Armstrong, of Hazel, Route 2, visited the Ledger & Times office Monday to place his name on the list of Calloway countians who saw service in the World War.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Sunday, March 31, 1940

At the morning worship hour, 10 o'clock, please be on time. The pastor will preach on "The Lost Leader," using King Saul as an example of the low depths to which one may sink after being signally used of God and His will. At the evening hour, 7:30 o'clock, the pastor will preach on "Lost Opportunities." These two themes are correlative and both touch the vital issues of life. Miss Patricia Mason will sing at the morning hour.

It was gratifying to see the large congregations at the Easter services in our Murray churches and if folks could brave the cold and snow of Easter, they could come to church every Sunday in the year. Now that spring is here, the calendar says so and the weather is like the laws of the Medes and Persians that change and alter not; we hope that many of our older people who have been shut in during the winter will find their way again to our house of worship. We miss these dear older people from our services.

The Sunday School and meetings of our young people afford opportunities to all for Christian nurture. If you fail to take advantage of these opportunities, you are the loser for these organizations will continue their good work. Come out and help us with the Lord's work.

All visitors and strangers are welcome at our services, with the assurance of a brotherly attitude. "Come thou with us and we will do thee good," said Moses to Hobab. The church still extends this invitation to all.

J. Mack Jenkins, Pastor.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

A. V. Havens, Minister

"Peace for Troubled Souls" will be the sermon subject of A. V. Havens, minister of the First Christian Church, at the morning worship service, next Sunday. "In a great many lives," said Mr. Havens, in announcing the sermon, "there is too much of constant friction. Their souls are in a constant turmoil. They are troubled, worried, anxious, fearful and their condition is daily taking a terrible toll in terms of health, happiness and success. How to Remove the Friction from Life might be another subject for this sermon."

Bad Road News

There has been a little sunshine, every body busy, some burning plantbeds, some sowing stovedwood, and others sowing grass and Jap seed.

There is some sickness in the community. Charley Cole is little improved at this writing. Some few have bad colds and some have the toothache. Parvin Jones has been suffering with a severe toothache.

The roads are still impassable for our peddler. Cecil Paschall mired down and almost tore his truck up Monday of last week.

"A Fighting Chance" The seniors are working on the play "A Fighting Chance" to be presented Saturday night, April 6. Out of 17 seniors there are 15 taking part in it.

The scene is in a settlement in the Tennessee mountains. Coleen, adorned by all, has not walked for five years due to an accident. Old Dr. Wilson, her grandfather, has done all that he can do. When young Dr. Hudson comes to town he is regarded with suspicion. Coleen's foster parents, wishing to do all they can for her, ask the new doctor to come to see her. He advises an operation. The men in town threaten to lynch the doctor rather than let him operate. Confident that the operation will be successful, Dr. Hudson promises that if Coleen is not walking within a month after the operation that they may hang him. At the end of the month Coleen is able to stand but not to walk. So eager are the men, headed by Dr. Wilson for vengeance, that they seize the young doctor. His collar is torn away disclosing a locket. Things begin to happen then. Be sure to come and see how it ends.

All the seniors are planning to attend Senior Day at the college Friday, March 29.

A new game, volleyball, has been organized since basketball season. Most everyone is taking part in the game and seem to enjoy it.

Murray High School Gridders Hold Bright Prospects With Weight, Speed

Coach Ty Holland is viewing with enthusiasm his Murray High grid prospects for the 1940 season as they participate in spring drills. Coach Holland is of the opinion that prospects are much better for his outfit than they were last season when the Tigers won 5 games, lost 4, and tied 1.

This season will find missing from the ranks, because of graduation, Huie, Gardner, Farley, Shultz, Baker, Robinson, Ben Boggess, J. B. Outland and others, but a goodly number of candidates from last year's excellent second team will ably furnish replacements to the team.

For the 1940 edition of the Tigers, Billy Fair, captain-elect, has shown his intentions to keep his last year's berth, while at the other end spot Palmer Outland, Castle Parker, Billy Joe Saunders, Richard Boggess and Duval Stone are having a free-for-all to see who is the best man for the position.

The tackles should be as strong as Jackson's stone wall with Brumley, 180 pounds, Critter, 181 pounds, and Jones, 168, on hand to fill the bill.

Coach Holland's guard list is headed by Scott, who by the way is exceptionally fast and should be a constant threat to his opponents, while Blalock and Patterson are putting on a battle royal to locate permanently at the other guard duties.

At the present time Holland's question mark is being placed on the center position as Baker was lost through graduation. However, Linn, reserve snapper-back from last year's team is on hand and is being pushed by Miller, a big 190-pounder, who really likes the game and has great possibilities.

Unlike last year, when the backfield was "the problem, this year's squad shows an abundance of good backs. Fulton, who will more than likely fit in the quarterback slot, is a good, all-around man on both offense and defense. At the fullback post is L. B. Boggess. This last found himself late last season and performed brilliantly and should prove a terror to the opposition this fall.

Buchanan, a fine passer, will occupy left half position if he can improve his blocking and tackling. Sharing left half will be Joe Parker, as fine a running back as you would wish for. Joe will be watching this year. The right half position will find Ed Wilson Farmer capably filling the post. Ed Wilson has the ability to be the best running back since Dynamite Dunn went wild on the Murray gridiron. All he has ever needed has been determination and he is showing plenty in spring practice, according to Coach Holland.

Also at right half will be Williams, who held that spot last year. He is one of the fastest men on the squad and only needs ambition to make a real star. Another good prospect is W. L. Polly, a junior high boy, who is fast and is showing plenty of determination to go places.

Among other good men which Holland is watching with interest are Cable, Hamrick, Clifton, Harbin, in the backfield, and Gibbs, Denham, Tumme, and Max Blalock in the line.

The 1940 schedule as released by Coach Holland, is as follows: Sept. 20—Elkton, here. Sept. 27—Dawson Springs, here. Oct. 4—Mayfield, here. Oct. 11—Fulton, there. Oct. 18—Bowling Green, here. Oct. 25—Marion, there. Nov. 1—Tilghman, there. Nov. 8—Open. Nov. 15—Russellville, here. Nov. 21—Paris, there.

Brook's Chapel

Taz Jones and family who left for Florida last November 15, arrived home March 13. All members of the family gained in weight and are feeling fine.

Mrs. Ollie Burken and granddaughters, Misses Ramsey, visited her nephew, Ed Chadwick, and Mrs. Chadwick of Almo to see their fine little girl who has been named Jane.

Dave Collier of Route 5, Benton, near Maple Spring, was an all day guest of his sister, Mrs. Nannie Stringer, March 17.

Mrs. Ida Garner, formerly of St. Louis, Mo., now of Benton, is here visiting her cousin, Mrs. Nannie Stringer.

Gordon Ridge correspondent, I like to read your letters. Mrs. Jake Jones of Mayfield and her son, Gratton Jones, his wife and son, Wayne Jones, of Cleveland, O., were here March 22 to see Mrs. Jones' aunt, Mrs. Ida Garner who is here visiting her cousin, Mrs. Nannie Stringer.

The pastor preached at the church to a large and attentive assembly third Sunday at 11 a. m.

Mrs. Sena Jones is the owner of a nice brood of little chickens. We have had some of the coldest weather and deepest mud I ever remember of.

With best wishes and highest regards to the good old, reliable Ledger & Times, its editor, correspondents, readers and all, I remain—Old Glory.

Protemus Palaver

Thanks, Mr. Editor, for your kind explanation of the reason that our letters sometimes fail to be printed. I'm sure there are many who, like myself, were ignorant of the work necessary to make a newspaper. I have never been beyond the front office.

Well this year certainly presented us with a novel Easter. Did you ever see snow on Easter before? "Eagle" The children were disappointed in this community, for they had been counting on an egg hunt at Mr. Charley Stone's.

Olive Oyl and little brood visited her brother, Bud Kemp and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kemp, the first part of last week, and with much persuasion brought her mother home with her for the remainder of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Kemp, Claude Kemp, Charles Kemp, and Mrs. Russell Story came for her Sunday afternoon.

Last week we met at the home of Mrs. Gertie West and quitted two quilts for Mrs. Marie Todd. Those present were Mrs. Lois Camp, Mrs. Lucy Lee McReynolds, Mrs. Ola Murdock, Mrs. Hattie Cochran, Mrs. Lucille West, Mrs. Maud Todd, Mrs. Wilma Doublin, Mrs. Bessie Paschall, Mrs. Jewel Guthrie, Mrs. Larue Trousader, Mrs. Velma Black, Mrs. Lela Lassiter, Mrs. Marie Todd, Mrs. Rhoda Stone, and Mrs. Gertrude West. Misses Thelma Stone, Faye Todd, Melba Fay Paschall, Joette Lassiter, Margetta West, Dean Lassiter, Abe Todd and Larry Keith Lassiter.

I regretted very much that I was unable to attend the quilting at Mrs. Lois Camp's last week.

Mr. Jim Spann remains seriously ill at his home at Protemus. Charley Stone and Virgil Lassiter, there was not any preaching at beds burned for 1940 but also one built for 1941. Aren't they ambitious—Olive Oyl.

Cooperation is Desirable

Within a few days a great throng of men and women will begin entering the homes of America and bombarding the occupants thereof with a long list of questions.

The visiting interrogator will be the Federal Census Enumerator. A long list of questions have been devised by the Census Bureau and the enumerators will be expected to get accurate answers to them for each man, woman and child living in the United States. These questions deal with a great many things such as wealth, income, education, age, employment, and so on through an intensive social and economic inquiry.

Some people seem to possess a sort of innate inclination to decline to answer questions of private or intimate nature. There rises in the breast of these people the feeling that they are free American citizens and therefore cannot be compelled to give out personal information which they consider to be their own private business.

We believe, fortunately, that this group of persons is small in number, and that the overwhelming majority will answer accurately and courteously the questions asked by the persons making the population count. The people employed to ask the questions, as everyone knows, had nothing to do with formulating the list, and it would be the height of absurdity for one to demonstrate anger or disgust toward the innocent person making the count.

There was no desire on the part of the Federal Census Bureau to pry into personal affairs just to be prying when the items on which information should be gathered regarding each individual, were listed. The real motive underlying the formulation of the questionnaire was the desire to get all data necessary to present a true picture of the social and economic status of the nation after the facts gained from the masses are assembled. Such a picture is very necessary for the Federal Government to complete and perfect its program of social security for every individual.

We believe that polite cooperation will be the attitude of an overwhelming number of our population. This type of attitude will not only speed the completion, but add to the accuracy of facts collected. Certainly an effort should be made to see that every person living inside the corporation of cities and towns is listed; for the population given this year will be the federal record until 1950, the year of the next enumeration.

Mule Day

Murray's first big mule day on Fourth Monday in March, the big trade day for many years, with ribbons and prizes, was conceded by all to be a huge success despite the efforts of the "weather man" to the contrary. The snow and chilling wind failed to cool the ardor of the traders, as they paraded around the Court Square. Those fortunate enough to win ribbons and prizes experienced an added thrill to the big annual trade day.

The mayor very aptly expressed the observation of all when he told the Young Business Men's Club that it was a day of mutual profit and pleasure for the business men of Murray and those bringing their livestock to trade and sell and to compete for prizes.

Perhaps, with more definite planning, and greater publicity, the big mule day on Fourth Monday in March next year can be made a much larger and more successful affair.

Some Early History

By JOHN WRIGHT HOLSAPPEE

Looking at the copy of the Murray Gazette of May 17, 1876 which was mentioned in a former letter I see the following:

1. The announcement of Hon. A. R. Boon of Mayfield as a candidate for congress of W. B. Keys and Equibre William Holland as candidates for sheriff of Calloway county.
2. A clipped editorial from the Paducah Herald which paper was edited by Col. John C. Noble. He was urging congress to adjourn because it was "doing much harm and no good" and "hardly takes a step that is not impolitic or stupid."
3. The announcement of a dog law recently passed by the Legislature.
4. The announcement that Col. Ed Crossland would not be a candidate for congress.
5. Thirteen of the then thirty-seven Senators of the U. S. A. had Democratic Governors.
6. That the Memphis Appeal was "out for Sam J. Tilden for President of the U. S. A." saying that "Tilden is certainly a very 'chump'." (I happen to remember that Tilden was the nominee of the Democratic party a few months before he was defeated at the November election.)
7. That there were 250,000 in attendance at the opening of the Philadelphia centennial. My partner, J. M. Hitchens, attended that convention.
8. That T. R. Jones, of Calloway county, sold 140 bids of tobacco on the Paducah market.

Convention at St. Louis in 1876. When I came down from the convention hall news boys were selling papers telling "all about the nomination of Tilden and Hendricks." It had been only a few minutes since the nomination, but the papers were already telling the news while it was news in those days as well as they do now. At the November election it was first announced that the ticket was elected. We had a big celebration at Murray. Took the old cannon down to the brow of the hill and had the biggest celebration Murray had ever known up to that time. Frank Peterson was the punner. When "wadding" gave out Frank rammed his new Setaon hat down. He was too much excited to care for a little more excitement. We celebrated too. The election commission counted the Democrats out and the Republicans in. Hightenford B. Hays was our next President.

THE SPILLWAY

BY WAYLON

The Spillway applauds with a great deal of enthusiasm the recent endorsement of the "super-highway" by the Kentucky legislature.

Mayfield, Kentucky by the Kentucky Congressional delegation in Washington for membership on the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Mr. Webb has been the able chairman of the Kentucky Railroad Commission for the past four and one-half years, and by reason of his position, has had opportunity to appear before the Interstate body on numerous occasions when freight rates affecting Kentucky were being considered. Thus, Bob has gained valuable experience which makes him better qualified to render efficient and expert service as a member of the body.

Besides Bob's experience in matters pertaining to the work of the Commission, he is a brilliant young lawyer whose honesty and integrity are beyond reproach. We are confident in the belief that the Senate and Representatives will never have cause to regret this endorsement.

Word is received from Frankfort that the "problem" road project known as 12th Street is to be paved. The report also indicates that a leading from Cairo, Illinois to Mayfield is to be built this year. We still think the move to have the "road" extending southwest from Mayfield via Farmington, Coldwater, Murray, and thence to Dover, Tennessee by New Concord deserves a federal highway is highly important to the future development of Calloway. Additional federal mileage will be designated this year and Calloway doesn't have a foot of federal highway.

New aspirants to the First Congressional seat occupied at present by J. Noble Gregory, Mayfield, Ky., are beginning to feel the pulse of the electorate. Among those stumping out the public at large are Vago E. Barnes, the present State Commissioner of Unemployment Compensation, and Hecht Lackey of Paducah, but at the managing the radio broadcasting station in Hopkinsville.

It is an old axiom that the bragging who thinks he's fooling everybody usually succeeds only with himself.

and

by

F. C. POQUE

FINLAND

Since my last article was written the Russian advance has been feasting the defenders of Finland and forcing on them a peace which was far more severe than had been expected. The gains of the Russian make Russian control of the East Baltic Sea more complete, permit the Russian easier access into Sweden and Norway and make Finland a virtual protectorate of Russia. Much comment has been made on the reasons why Finland agreed to such a disastrous peace and why the allies permitted such a peace to be dictated by Russia.

From the Finnish standpoint, the reasons for peace are rather simple. Since the beginning of the war it has been clear that Finland

the natural defense was under the assistance from Scandinavian countries and from the Allies. Only the valiant fighting of the Finns

the natural defense was under the assistance from Scandinavian countries and from the Allies. Only the valiant fighting of the Finns

Did this snow slip right up on us? I say it did. The biggest snow of the season fell the night of March 23. However, 32 years ago, the 29th night in next month (April) a big snow fell. Some few had tobacco set and corn almost large enough to plow and roses were blooming. But we will have to take the weather as it comes.

Mr. and Mrs. George Parish were Saturday night and Sunday visitors of Mrs. Parish's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Logan Nanny of Hardin Route 1, whose health hasn't been so very good this winter.

Mrs. Martha Carroll spent Saturday with her daughter, Mrs. Reed Jones and helped her quilt. Mr. and Mrs. John Booker and little daughter, Lou Jean, were Saturday night and Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Glover. Buck Jones has his house almost completed on Hardin Route 1 and will move into it before long.

Johnny Ross has moved to the Joe Morris place of business. Mrs. Jenny Hopkins, who suffered a paralytic stroke February 3, shows very little improvement. Mrs. Hopkins' many friends wish for a speedy recovery.

John Butler is going to install a grocery and will start peddling soon.

Edison Lee was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Booker Friday night and all were bed-time guests of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor-Henderson.

Reed Jones sold a fine cow one day last week.

Vegetable Laxative
Has Important Points

Most people want a laxative to do three things: (1) act punctually, (2) act thoroughly, (3) act gently.

Here's one that usually fills all three requirements when the easy directions are followed. It's an all-vegetable product whose principal ingredients have met with recognition as an "intestinal tonic-laxative."

That's the ingredient which enables BLACK-DRAUGHT to help tone lazy bowel muscles. It is the main reason for the satisfying relief from constipation that generally follows next morning when BLACK-DRAUGHT is taken at bedtime. The millions of packages used are proof of its merit.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Mrs. Mary Frances Wilkerson who passed away seven months ago today. An angel came and took away our darling mother.

This day will not pass without my memory going back to her as at other times when I think of the finer things of life. Her influence and love will long be remembered.

These few words are written to express my sincere appreciation and devotion for the many kindly things mother did for me. While mere words can never repay her for all she has meant to me and for all she did for me it is my wish to convey my love to my mother who has gone away where I expect to meet her on that resurrection day.

Road News

Hello, everybody! Here I am again with a little news. Miss Maud Ross is improving slowly but is yet confined to her bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Burchett and son and daughter-in-law were bed-time visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Starks and family last Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oldham and family are moving into the house where Jonah Pace and wife vacated, recently. We are glad to have them back in our old neighborhood again.

Miss Mattie Ross has been carding cotton bolls for the past week. She is planning on putting a quilt in the frames soon. So you women get your thimbles handy and be ready to help her.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt Edwards purchased a new radio recently. Yes, and they had better look out for company now.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Overbey and family spent Saturday night at the home of Raymond Starks.

R. W. and James Blakely passed through here last Monday morning on their way to a fox chase. Hope they had good luck.

I guess Norman Bennett and family will be driving around now as Mr. Bennett had some work done on his car lately to put it in driving condition.

Mrs. Charlie Fennel has returned home from Tennessee after spending the winter months with her children.

Mrs. Oscar Thompson and little son, Jesse Lee, were all day guests of Mrs. Howell Starks Thursday.

Miss Mary Kathryn Hurt has the mumps at this writing.

Mrs. Raymond Starks and little son, Gene Dale, and Miss Pawnee Starks were the afternoon guests of Mrs. Norma Bennett Thursday. I'll see you later.—Pudding Face.

Card of Thanks

We express our sincere thanks to friends and neighbors for their kindness during the sudden death of our dear, dear wife and mother, Mrs. Edna Washer.

Especially do we thank Bro. Gregory for his comforting words. We also thank Ronald Churchill, funeral director, for his kindness, and those who remembered her so kindly with floral offerings. May God bless each and every one of you is our sincere prayer.

John A. Washer, Mrs. Lottie Cole, Joe, Robert and Pat Carson.

Beaver Colonies Found In Western Kentucky Counties

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 27.—Several colonies of beaver have been discovered at work in the western section of the state in Trigg, Caldwell and Lyon counties.

According to Frank Giannini, Conservation Officer of the Division of Game and Fish from Princeton, one colony of beaver built a dam on Herb Gray's farm about three miles north of Cadiz, Trigg County.

Mr. Gray has a crossing on the stream and when the dam is completed it causes the water to back up over the crossing, preventing anyone from getting across the creek. Ordinarily the beaver cut down trees of which the wood is of a soft variety, but one stump was sawed off and sent to the Division of Game and Fish here in Frankfort and upon examination was found to be iron wood. This indicates that the beaver will use hard and tough wood when the softer types can not be found.

Giannini also stated that three dams had been located on Livingston Creek, which flows through Caldwell and Lyon counties, last fall but that he did not know whether they were still intact or not.

Several colonies of beaver are also at work in Harlan county and A. Stokes, Conservation Officer from this county, reported recently that they had built several dams on the headwaters of the creeks in that county.

Farm Notes

A committee of farmers interested in the improvement of cotton in the county met in the office of the Extension Agent and adopted the plan of cotton improvement as outlined in the following by-laws:

BY-LAWS OF THE CALLOWAY COUNTY COTTON IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION

Article I.—Name
The name of this organization, which is a non-profit unincorporated cooperative association without capital stock, shall be the Calloway County Cotton Improvement Association.

Article II.—Objects
The objects of this association are:

(a) The production of a single superior variety of cotton in order that the length, uniformity, and quality of the fiber may be improved.

(b) To secure marketing advantages by maintaining the production of regular quantities of uniform fiber.

(c) To maintain conditions necessary for the increase of stocks of superior planting seed.

(d) To maintain and make continuous available to the growers of the community regular supplies of pure planting seed at the lowest possible cost, but discourage the use of the Association for commercializing seed sales.

(e) To encourage the adoption of improved cultural practices.

(f) To encourage better preparation of cotton for market by the adoption of better harvesting and handling practices and improved ginning methods.

Article III.—Membership
(a) Any cotton grower is eligible for membership.

Membership shall be for a period of one year. The members agree to grow only the variety and seed stock of cotton adopted by a majority of the membership. The adopted variety for this organization shall be Delta Pine Land No. 11A.

Article IV.—Organization
The affairs of this organization shall be conducted by a president, vice president, secretary-treasurer, and two or more directors who shall be elected by the members at each annual meeting, all of whom shall be producers except the secretary, who may or may not be a grower. The duties of the officers shall be those which usually pertain to their respective offices. No officer or director shall receive compensation from the organization.

Article V.—Quorum
Members: At any duly called meeting of the members 20% or more of the members present shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Article VI.—Voting Power
Each member has one vote.

Article VII.—Finance
The Board of Directors shall have the responsibility of regulating the financial affairs of the association, and all activities which are necessary for the promotion of the objects under these By-Laws.

Article VIII.—Corporation
(a) The Board of Directors shall have the right to promulgate regulations covering the production, handling and disposal of all cottonseed produced by its members.

(b) The Board will be guided in the formation of grades by the Federal and State Agencies cooperating in one-variety cotton communities.

(c) The Board of Directors shall have the power to enter into agreements with growers for the production of seed stocks, and the increasing of seed stock and/or the production of superior seed for planting purposes. The Board may disqualify any seed, which does not meet the standard for the specific grade.

Article IX.—Amendments
These By-Laws may be amended at any annual or special meeting of the members by a majority vote thereof.

Article X.—Annual Meeting
(a) To be decided later.

(b) The annual meeting of this association shall be held (date) (to be decided later) of each year (March 25, 1940 Date of adoption) (Signature of Members).

It is the aim of the committee to get every cotton farmer in the county interested in the production of better cotton to list as a member in this association.

The cotton committees selected at a meeting earlier in the year consists of the following members: C. C. Lovett, chairman; T. J. Massey, vice-chairman; Mary A. Houston, secretary; D. M. Bailey, Milburn Holland, S. W. Askew, C. E. Richie, Stanley Duncan, A. J. Wilson, Eric Cunningham, and Z. M. Jackson.

Every cotton producer interested in this program should contact one of these men and get his name listed as interested in the program.

FIELD DAY WILL BE HELD AT JACKSON, TENNESSEE

Field Day will be held April 5th at Jackson, Tenn., and Calloway county farmers desiring to go on this trip should either make up car loads and go from their respective communities, or notify the county agent's office that arrangements may be made for the trip. Anyone in the county desiring to take a car that does not have a load should get in touch with the Extension agent, or office, in order to get his car filled. This delegation should arrange to leave between 7:30 and 7:30 a. m. in order to arrive at the farm in time for the program.

The best route from here to Jackson would be to go to Paris, from Paris to McKenzie, from there to Milan, and from Milan to Jackson via Medina, and the Experiment Station Farm at Jackson is out on the Brownsville Road about two miles from Jackson and should be found easily.

LOCAL TOMATO GROWERS PREPARE TO ORDER SLIPS

Eighteen farmers placed orders for tomato slips yesterday, totaling 50,000. The executive committee has set April 10 as the date for accepting orders. All orders should be placed by this date with one of the committee or at the Extension office. Price—$1.50 per slip, $1.75 per thousand and 20 cents per thousand. The committee consists of Chesley Adams, Q. T. Guier, B. M. Coleman and L. F. Wilson.

Calloway County Farm Bureau Directors had their monthly meeting Monday, March 25, at the Court House and elected Otis Key as secretary-treasurer for the coming year. Mr. Key has been employed by the Agricultural Conservation Program of the county for the past two years and will continue working that capacity along with the farm bureau work and may be located at any time at the office on North Fourth street.

The Directors set the county-wide meeting for April 13, and request that all farmers interested in the betterment of agriculture to be present.

Information coming to County Agent Cochran from the Experiment Substation at Princeton, Ky., reveals that if strawberry growers in this section wish to set out plants free from crown borers, plants should be dug at once.

Tests run at the University of Kentucky laboratory on crown borers sent from the vicinity of Princeton reveal some eggs and one showed mature eggs that are ready and which will be laid with the first warm weather.

According to W. D. Armstrong, horticulturist, this means that the sections south of Princeton some eggs have probably already been laid. Sections north to Princeton are probably a bit later.

Further reports will be made regarding the situation at Princeton will continue to make shipments each week for examination in order to post growers in this locality of present conditions.

Farm Clean-Up Urged by Elliott

The farmstead should be given an annual cleaning if it is to present the neat and attractive appearance that it should have. February is the time to start this work and the Homemakers throughout the state are putting on a campaign to further this work. All members of the Homemakers clubs will strive to make their homes the outstanding ones in the community. It is not necessary to spend money, but a little work and cooperation on the part of the members of the family will achieve marvelous results.

Things to Do
Old buildings that are no longer useful and are partially falling down should be removed, saving the good lumber and burning the rest.

Dead trees are always unsightly. These things can be done with such trees first, cut them down and remove, second, cut and leave the stump for flower box; and third, the branches leaving stubs about two feet long, then plant Trumpet vine or Virginia Creeper at the base, training the vines to cover the trunk and branch stubs. These vines become very attractive.

Pile the wood or coal in neat piles removing all chips and cinders.

Discarded farm implements or machinery should be removed, saving the old iron for junk and burning the wooden parts.

Useable farm machinery should be stored in buildings for protection from the weather; if this is not possible, place them where they will not be visible from the house.

Lots are necessary for farm livestock and especially those leading from the house should be kept clean, and all rubbish removed.

Repair or renew the yard fence so that it is good looking. Above all, have

G. A. Atkins of Murray is reported improving at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Inez Waggener of Crutcheville after a long illness.

Sunny Tennessee News

Miss Helen Louis Cleaver of Mayfield spent the Easter holidays visiting Mrs. Myrtle Reeves of Murray.

Billy Manning of Paducah spent Friday night visiting G. W. Gardner on West Main street.

Mrs. M. O. Weather is spending several days in Lexington, Ky., with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grogan. Mrs. Grogan, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident several months ago, is reported to be improving.

The ground was covered Saturday night with a blanket of snow for Easter Sunday. Several folks that had planned to be in Murray today (Monday) did not go as the weather is so cold.

A few plant beds were burned last week. Some few of the beds have been canvassed.

Raymond Hutton purchased a new tractor recently.

Velda Gray Milam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Milam, now of Paducah, was married recently to a Paducah man. She has not yet learned his name.

Burle Wilson visited his mother, Mrs. Nora Wilson and sister, Mrs. Sola Curd, last week-end.

Mrs. Nora Wilson was carried to the city of Dr. Miller Saturday for treatment of high blood pressure.

Mrs. Jim Simmons has been helping Mrs. Thomas Oliver quit this week. Mrs. Nancy Petty and Noma Housden quitted last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Housden and Donald Lee visited Mr. and Mrs. Warlick Hutton Saturday night.

Peggy Ann Hutton was carried to Dr. Miller Saturday afternoon for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Williams visited Mr. and Mrs. Rob Duncan and Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan Thursday night and enjoyed a delicious fish supper.

One time I wrote a piece about the neighbors. "Someone said they like it. I am in a different neighborhood now so I will give you another line of them."

Here is Truman Oliver's family. I will just say a very little about them. "A. A. has gone to the big trade day at Murray. Rubie Fay is at Buchanan school. The little girl, Anna, is playing at home and the house is quiet."

We will now go down here to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Housden. Yes, Noma is the home bright and shining while her Dad, Henry Hutton, and husband, Grady, work on the farm. The next place is Mr. and Mrs. Robert Petty's. Mr. Petty can think of several funny things to say to you. Mrs. Nancy has taken many orphan children in her home and cared for them. She is certainly a fine woman.

It is almost dinner time now and we are here at Mr. and Mrs. Jim Simmons. If you will prepare some salmon for dinner I will be coming down there as you can cook them different. Jim thinks that's a lot for his little girl. He has gone some place. Cub Bishop is working at something. Now the next stop is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burton. They are certainly fine folks.

Here we are at the home of Charlie Williams. Mr. Charlie is a fine man. He is a sick man and many folks call on him. Mrs. Rhoda is loved by all. And we will stop next time at your home.

We have been in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Parks many times. Bess is also a fine cook and keeps her home very neat. The Albritton home is our next stop. They are always ready to help everyone and folks couldn't do without them.

I had better quit as I could name them on and on. I will close for this time—Sweet Peas.

AMERICAN JERSEY CATTLE CLUB WILL MEET IN KENTUCKY

Annual Meeting at Louisville in June, National Sale at Lexington

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 27.—A bluegrass setting for "National Jersey Cattle Week" in June has been decided upon by The American Jersey Cattle Club, the oldest purebred cattle registry association in America. An invitation of long standing to make Kentucky the scene of the 73rd annual meeting and national Jersey sale was accepted recently by the Club's directors. The meeting will be the first ever held in Kentucky, the home of many celebrated Jersey breeding farms.

Louisville will be host, on June 5, to the representatives of the 1400-member organization of Jersey cattle breeders who will come from all parts of the nation for their annual meeting and election of officers.

Lexington was selected for the national Jersey sale on the day following the meeting, June 6. Plans for the sale are being made by the club, the cream of the nation's purebred herds, to be sold at auction there on that date. The national sale is significant because it is a factor in establishing values of Jersey cattle throughout the country.

A warm Southern welcome and an interesting program of tours, visits to breeding farms, and social events were promised by Perry B. Gaines, president of the national organization of Jersey cattle breeders, a native Kentuckian, when offering his status invitation. His own famous Riverview Farm at Carrollton, Ky., will hold open house for the visiting Jersey breeders, and other breeding farms of the state are preparing to do likewise.

Jersey Creamline, Inc., will also hold its annual meeting at Louisville on June 5. Established a year ago to supervise the identification of pure Jersey milk under a registered trademark, Jersey Creamline, Inc., has become one of the major projects of the national Jersey cattle program. Its president is Louis W. Dean of Waltham, Mass.

In anticipation of the visits of hundreds of out-of-state cattlemen during the first full week of June, Kentucky Jersey breeders are arranging a full schedule of events to entertain them, according to reports reaching Lewis W. Morley, executive secretary of The American Jersey Cattle Club, at whose New York City office President Gaines and the directors met this week. The Kentucky Jersey Cattle Club, whose presidents is R. D. Shipman of Shelbyville, will take an active part in the arrangements, as will Laurence B. Gardner of Knoxville, Tenn., southeastern representative of the national organization.

Organized in 1886 to preserve the purity of the Jersey breed of dairy cattle in America, The American Jersey Cattle Club now is the national repository for pedigree and production records for 50,000 Jersey cattle breeders. All but three of its annual meetings have been held in the North. The Club met in Baltimore in 1937; Nashville, Tenn., in 1938; and Tulsa, Okla., in 1939. Other meetings have been held in New York City, where the national offices are located, and in Philadelphia, Kansas City, and Springfield, Mass.

NEW SOIL

(a) Conduct surveys and research and disseminate information. (Provides for federal assistance to state research and educational agencies in extending aid to districts.)

(b) Conduct demonstrations in conservation of soil resources. (Provides for assisting districts in demonstrating effective control measures.)

(c) Plan and carry out erosion control measures. (Make available to all farmers assistance in applying erosion control measures.)

(d) To enter into agreements with land holders and furnish financial and other aid in carrying on erosion-control practices. (Provides for voluntary cooperation.)

(e) To acquire, own, receive, and administer property.

(f) To make available to farmers agricultural and engineering machinery and equipment, fertilizer, seeds, trees, and materials. (Provides opportunity to furnish CCC and WPA labor and such materials and equipment necessary to assist farmers in applying conservation measures.)

(g) To develop plans for conservation of soil resources and to make such available to farmers of district. (Provides for development of long-time plan.)

(h) To take over and administer any federal or state conservation project within district. Enables district to administer publicly-owned sub-marginal lands.

(i) The supervisors, if and when they determine uncontrolled erosion is causing damages to other lands within the district, may propose land-use ordinances. A two-thirds majority vote of the board of supervisors is required before any land-use ordinance can become effective. (These ordinances would be similar to those adopted in towns and cities to promote the general welfare. Provides for protection to flood control structures, public lands and properties, and conservation investments of individual farmers.)

Questions and Answers on the Kentucky Soil Conservation Districts Law.

Q. Why has Soil Conservation Districts legislation been recommended to the states?

A. Local subdivisions of government, formed along watershed or problem area lines, have been recommended by the U. S. Department of Agriculture as the most effective agency for receiving assistance from the state and federal sources in launching an attack on the conservation of soil and water resources and the control of erosion. Local participation in policy determination, planning, and administration of public funds is provided. Soil Conservation Districts receive priority consideration in the allocation of funds appropriated by Congress for erosion control, drainage, development of farm forestry, upstream flood control, and sub-marginal land development.

Q. Does passage of a soil conservation district act by the legislature create districts?

A. No. The bill is merely enabling legislation that permits local people to form districts, if they want them.

Q. How many districts have been organized in the United States?

A. On Nov. 1, 1939, 201 soil conservation districts were in operation in 25 states. More than 100 additional districts were in process of organization.

Q. How many states have passed enabling legislation such as is proposed for Kentucky?

A. Thirty-six states have passed a districts law.

Q. What benefits may the individual farmer reasonably expect from a soil conservation district?

A. He will receive the benefit of organized effort to combat a common problem. Some of the benefits may be listed as follows: (a) Aid in developing a farm plan for soil and water conservation for his farm; (b) assistance of men trained and experienced in combating erosion; (c) assistance in the form of materials, equipment, and relief labor.

Q. Can districts issue bonds or levy taxes?

A. No. Only sources of funds for districts are from federal or state appropriations, or voluntary contributions of the local people.

Q. Do the supervisors receive salaries?

A. No. But their expenses may be paid if found to be reasonable.

Q. Can CCC labor be used in carrying out a program in a soil conservation district?

A. Yes, whenever available. When CCC camps are moved, soil conservation districts have first consideration.

Q. Is it necessary for a district to adopt land-use ordinances?

A. No. Districts may function indefinitely without them. They are to be invoked solely as a means of protecting flood control structures, publicly-owned lands and properties, and conservation investments of individuals. And, it should be noted that a two-thirds majority vote is required before any ordinance can go into effect.

Q. What is the extent of erosion in the State of Kentucky?

A. Ninety-five per cent of the total land area of Kentucky is affected in some degree by erosion—a higher percentage than any other state. More than a third of Kentucky's land has been seriously damaged by erosion. Nearly 3 million acres in this state have been essentially destroyed for productive use by erosion.

Q. Will soil conservation districts tend to duplicate the activities of existing agencies?

A. No. Rather than duplicate activities soil conservation districts offer a new medium, recommended by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, through which all federal and state agricultural agencies may channel their activities into coordinated program directed at the needs of the land and local people.

Hardin and Vicinity

Yes, we got our share of the Easter snow, and smiled! Easter services were held at the Dexter Methodist church at 8:30 a. m. and at Hardin at 9:30 a. m. with very good attendance at each service. Union Ridge and Palestine held similar services but the attendance was not so large. An Easter program was held at Olive Sunday night with the largest crowd of the day in attendance.

Victor Henson, age 50, formerly of Hardin, died in Detroit, Mich., Sunday. We understand the body is being brought to Almo for burial Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Covington of Morganfield, Ky., spent Saturday night with Mr. Covington's parents in Paducah, and Sunday night with Mrs. Covington's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Irwin in Hardin. They returned to their home in Morganfield Monday.

Homer Lassiter and family of Hardin spent last weekend with relatives at Concord.

Members of the cast not included in the above picture are Mona Heinze and Fred Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Irwin of Hardin, who is in school at Murray, spent the weekend with home folks in Hardin.

J. C. Edwards, local barber, is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. J. G. Ladd is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Carlos Roberts at Almo since the death of Mr. Ladd.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wright, who have spent the winter in Detroit, returned to Hardin last weekend and are making arrangements to get on the road this spring with their show.

Word was received in Hardin Tuesday morning of the serious illness of Mrs. Arthur Lee of Centralia, Ill. She was formerly Miss Retha Henson of Olive. Her health has been bad for several years.

Obituary

Mrs. Edna Washer died March 20 at 5:30 just as the last rays of the golden sun streaked the western sky. The call from the Master came, saying "It is enough, come Home." And the quiet life of Mrs. Washer went to the Maker whom she had loved and trusted all her life.

In early life she professed faith in Christ and joined the church at Kirksey and later moved her membership to West Fork where she lived a consistent life.

Mrs. Washer was born October 15, 1886. Her stay on this earth was 53 years, 6 months and 3 days.

She was married to Van Carson October 2, 1903. Four children survive her: Mrs. Lottie Cole of Brewers, Joe and Robert of Murray and Pat Irwin of Kirksey. She also leaves 6 grandchildren.

On December 7, 1930, she was married to J. A. Washer who survives her and also a brother, Guy Chilcutt of Frankfort, Ind.

In the years of active usefulness and buoyance of life she was called. She escaped the dread of old age and bodily pain of long suffering.

But her life was full of service, graciously and joyfully given wherever help was needed. No task was too hard in sickness or in any kind of need, her willing hands were always ready.

So let us as Christians, relatives and friends shoulder the mantle of her unfinished labor in her efforts to lighten the burden of mankind.

In her passing we may more deeply and fully realize our responsibility to do more, from the example of her life and that the husband, children and friends shall meet her where sorrow nor parting ever comes.
